ADDED STARTER TAKES STAKE EVENT IN A BIG GALLOP.

King Pepper Scores Again for Farrell a Bumping Match-Three Favorites Reward the Talent at Belmont Park.

Disagreeable weather seems to have no terrors for racegoers these days, for more than 10,000 persons went to Belmont Park yesterday in spite of the drizzle and for. The races were run over a heavy track, three jump by a nose from Jerry C. 7 to 1, who faltered just when he seemed about to take the race. Montreson, 20 to 1, was third, three lengths back. Time, 1:15-2-5.

Leonard Joe Hayman, 9 to 5 favorite, was victorious in the second event for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs. He went to the front at the last furlong pole, where Mintia and Odd Ella, the pacenakers, tired, and won by a length and a half from Tong Aste's Miss Point, a 15 to 1 shot. Bill Daly's dientian backed down to 15 to 1, was a strong third. Time, 0:31 1-5.

Little Woods, well played at fives, made all the running in the fourth race, at a mile, but Hildebrand had to drive him hard to win by a half length from Arrahgowan, backed down to tens, the later having a neck over the favorite, Lord Badge, who ran a poor lace. The mile was covered in 147.

T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Ilylas, 7 to 5 favorite, was the winner of the steeplechase, at two miles, but only after the stewards had conferred over a protest of foul from Finnegal, who finished second with J. W. Colt's Sandhurst, backed down to threes. Ray waited with Hylas until next to the last jump had been passed, when he went to the winp. Hylas, who is a sluggish racer, swerved under puishment and bumped Sandhurst, knocking the latter out of his stride apparently.

This occurred just before the final obstacle was reached, where Sandhurst lost mate ground, but he came again in the run home and Hylas beat him only half a length. The stewards did not reach a verdifit until Miss Point, a 15to 1 shot. Bill Daly's Gentlan, backed down to 15 to 1, was a strong third. Time, 0:511-5.

Little Woods, well played at fives, made all the running in the fourth race, at a mile, but Hidebrand had to drive him hard to win by a half length from Arrangowan, backed down to tens, the later having a neck over the favorite, Lord Badge, who ran a poor race. The mile was covered in 147.

Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Hylas, 7 to 5 favorite, was the winner of the steeplechase, at two miles, but only after the stewards had conferred over a protest of foul from Finnegan, who finished second with J. W. Colt's Sandhurst, backed down to threes. Ray waited with Hylas until next to the last jump had been passed, when he went to the whip. Hylas, who is a shagish racer, swerved under punishment and bumped Sandhurst, knocking the latter out of his stride apparently.

This occurred just before the final obstacle was reached, where Sandhurst, knocking the latter out of his stride apparently.

This occurred just before the final obstacle was reached, where Sandhurst lost much ground, but he came again in the run home and Hylas beat him only half a length. The stewards did not reach a verdict until they had called up Patrol Judge W. F. Presgrave, who stated that in his opinion no foul had occurred, an opinion which seemed to settle the controversy, as Hylas's victory was allowed to stand. Russell Sare, lowered to sevens, was third, half a dozen lengths away. Dick Roberts, backed down to fives, had no speed. The race was run in 430c.

The highweight handicap at seven furlongs was a two horse affair between Kenilworth, 1 to 2 favorite, and Rostand, as the other entries were withdrawn. Kenilworth made his own nace, and despite a plucky bid for victory by Rostand under i Burns's whip, he won in rather easy style by a length in 1:344-5. The summary:

The ring suffered a severe reverse when R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Gallavant, an added starter, won the Maiden Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs. The Ornament colt was hammered down to 11 to 5 from threes, while August Belmont's Hastings colts Woolwich and Bivouac went up to 7 to 10, a majority of the crowd keeping off. The Goughacres Stable's Spring was a hot favorite in the first race, a handicap, at six furlougs, but he was never in the hunt. Frank Farrell's King Pepper, backed down to 9 to 2, on the other hand, after a long duel with Katie Caffrey, who was disposed of at the last sixteenth, managed to win in the last jump by a nose from Jerry C, 7 to 1, who faltered just when he seemed about to take the race. Montreson, 20 to 1, was third,

The Orange Horse Show.

ORANGE, May 17.—The attendance to-night, the last night of the Orange horse show in the riding and driving club, in East Orange, served to show that the horse is still king in the Oranges at least.

There was more real enthusiasm shown to-night than has been evident since the show started. Miss L. M. Cruikshank of Plainfield came in for much applause for her admirable handling of her bay mare, Garnet in the class for light harness horses over plainfield came in for much applause for her admirable handling of her bay mare, Garnet in the class for light harness horses over 14.1 hands.

Miss Cruikshank, however, only secured the yellow ribbon in this class. Hamilton H. Salmon secured the blue how in Class 7 for pairs of carriage horses. Class 40 for ladies' saddle horses, proved a pretty feature of the show. Miss Mary Rose Smith, daughter of ex-Senator James Smith, won her fourth blue ribbon in this class.

D. B. R. Chapman's chestnut gelding Bob Cratchit was measured by the judges in Class 32 for horses and runabouts. This was the first measurement of the show. The horse landed the third prize for its owner. Tonzo Sauvage, with his chestnut gelding Lord Nelson, carried off Ira A. Kip's prize cup in this event.

J. H. Minnick, mounted on A. E. Ashbrook's bay mare College Widow, received an ovation in the polo pony class. His mount was a supple little prairie horse. Minnick, who is a native of Oklahoma City, proved to be the 110 nof the show. He secured the second and third prizes in this class with the two mounts he rode.

The first accident of the season occurred in the tandem class when Miss Lula Day's bay gelding team, Master Claude and Miss Earle, driven by C. F. Lawton, missed stays and crashed into the judges' stand, wrecking it. The leader fell, but was quickly up and Mr. Lawton got them in hand before any further damage was done. The team won its third blue ribbon of the show in this class.

ROOKIES CLAMOR FOR DISQUALI-FICATION OF HYLAS.

Then, Baffled, They Sadly Pay Out Thousands on His Victory-M. L. Hayman and Tony Aste Clash in a Selling Race, Each Losing a Horse-Ten Books Quit.

There was a wide difference of opinion as to the ruling of the stewards on the protest of foul against Hylas, the winner of the steeple-chase at Belmont Park yesterday. Many of the spectators who watched the race through field glasses were positive that they saw Hylas foul Sandhurst not far from the last jump, but there were others who were equally sure that Sandhurst was as much to blame as Hylas, and among the latter was the patrol judge, W. F. Presgrave, the well known trainer of the Goughacres Stable. Hylas was tipped as a sure winner early in the day, and the crowd at large backed him steadily until he dropped in price to 7 to 5 favorite. Sandhurst, owned by J. W. Colt, on the other hand, was a paddock tip, which was confidently accepted by numerous fol-lowers of the jumping game. When Finnegan, who rode Sandhurst, mounted the steps to the stewards' stand, where S. S. Howland, H. J. Morris, W. S. Vosburgh and H. A. Buck were waiting, a crowd hurried to the scene, wildly applauding the protesting jockey.

In this enthusiastic gathering eight well known bookmakers, who stood to lose big money if Hylas was allowed to remain winner, so that their unusual interest in the result of the controversy was not at all strange. Even George Wheelock, the president of the defunct Mets, was in this excited throng that clamored for the dis-qualification of Hylas and while the stewards

Andrew Miller's Cambridge, Bill Daly's Gentian, Paget's Andria and Newton Bennington's Superior Boy were all played, principally place and show.

Farrell and the Sullivans had solid wagers on King Pepper, the winner of the first race. The old fellow is in better racing trim this year than for a long time, and has enabled the public to win many a dollar in the last two weeks. But while King Pepper was backed, the plunge on Spring proved to be one of the sensational events of the day. Nearly all of the professional tipsters handed the Atheling colt out as their "one best bet," while big operators like Wheelock and others who seldom go wrong plunged for the limit. Sydney Paget's Woodsaw, a three-year-old Octagon colt, who gave scale weight to everything in the race, was another effective money burner, as he was played down to 9 to 2. Joe Johnson, who rode Jerry C., the second horse, made a protest of foul to the stewards, but it was not allowed.

Nobody could estimate how much the ring losi on Gallavant, the winner of the Maiden Stakes. Eddie Burke, Wheelock, Cash and others poured the money in on Gallavant, the bookies accepting every wager in sight, while they held out the Belmont pair, Woolwich and Bivouac, who opened at 3 to 5. Then, when the books had enough Gallavant money, they looked for a rush on the stable, but it was not forthcoming, although Lichtenstein and Jesse Lewisolin put down heavy checks. Lichtenstein also dropped a fat commission on Lord Badge in the fourth race, and Charley Cash went with him. If Arrahgowan, owned by R. M. Taylor of Baltimore, had won, instead of being beaten by half a length, a killing would have been pulled off of no mean proportions. The ancient campaigner was backed down from 30 to 1 to tens, many of the clubhouse patrons accepting the tip and playing it across the board. Joe Yeager, it is said, cleaned up more than supper money on Little Woods, who took this race at 5 to 1, and incidentally showed a left at the post.

Starter Cassidy suspended Jockeys Taylor and W. Robbi known yet whether he will ever be able to ride again.

It is said that ten of the books controlled by members of the Mets have temporarily ogne out of business, because of flattened bank rolls. There were only fifty-nine Mets in the front line yesterday, with the five nonmembers doing business as usual.

The officials of the Fort Erie track have tendered the use of their stables to horsemen who are planning to race at the coming meeting at Buffalo.

The crowd preferred Burns to Fitzpatrick, and consequently backed Rostand to beat kenilworth in the last race, but Fitzpatrick rode the Sir Modred horse in clever, cool headed fashion, winning some sure money for the plungers.

COLUMBIA SWATS PENN.

Win, 10 to 0. Columbia batted Crimean to the bench in the first inning yesterday and got enough runs to win any ordinary game in a contest played in American League Park. Pennsylvania's second pitcher, Fennell, was all right until the eighth session, when six more tallies, the net result of five hits and two errors, made the final score 10 to 0 in favor of the locals. The New Yorkers fielded cleanly and backed up Tyler in fine style. The Columbia twirler allowed only two hits in the whole game, both being singles. The Red and Blue team was in poor condition and fielded loosely throughout.

Blue team was in poor condition and fielded loosely throughout.

In the first inning Saunders of Columbia bumped into Aldendifer, who was covering second on Saunders's steal, knocking him down. Aldendifer's collarbone was broken. Columbia broke into the game in the first. Fitzgerald walked, but was forced by Saunders. The latter made his forcible steal of second. Johnston replaced the injured man. Collins was an infield out, but Kenny tore off a nest one timer, scoring Saunders. Tyler walked and with two on bases Frambach whanged a homer to right field.

Pennsylvania did not get a man beyond second, making one hit in the fifth and one in the sixth. Fennell held Columbia safe until the eighth giving only two hits and striking out seven. In the eighth Tyler singled to left and went to second on a wild pitch. Frambach walked and Armstrong was safe when Fennell threw his roller to Schuler to catch Tyler The third baseman muffed the throw. Nohowel singled, cending in Tyler and Framback. Tilt slashed one which Johnston fumbled, Armstrong scoring. Fitzgerald's infield swipe was easy for the first put out. Saunders singled to center and Nohowel scored. Collins laid down a safe bunt and Kenny singled to right, sending in Tilt and Saunders. Collins laid down a safe bunt and Kenny singled to right, sending in Tilt and Saunders. Collins and Kenny were caught in a double steal, ending the agony. The score:

Baseball Notes.

McGann's anatomy has stopped three pitched balls in the last two games.

Bob Emsile will umpire the Harvard-Princeton game at Cambridge next Saturday.

President Pulliam of the National League has received Herrmann's personal check for $100$, the amount that Blankenship was fined for fighting with Clymer of Pittsburg. The $100, presumably, is to come out of Blankenship's salary. Clymer has not yet paid his fine.

Death of a Well Known Cricketer. John Adam, who last year was president of the New York Cricket Association and this year's captain of the Thistle Cricket this year's captain of the Thistle Cricket Club of Brooklyn, died on Tuesday night after a brief illness. He was one of the best all-round cricketers in New York, and in 1903 won the batting average of the association, with a record of 30.91 for fourteen innings. Last year he beaded the average in both batting and bowling for the Thistles, the former with 19.47 for twenty innings, and the latter with 5.02 for fifty-three wickets. He was born 30 years ago in Aberdeen, Scotland, but had been a resident of New York for many years.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4: CHICAGO (N. L.), 2. The inert Chicago National League team has moved on to new fields of endeavor, leaving behind it a trail of four straight defeats. The New Yorks won from them again yesterday, the Chicagos managing to escape a fourth shutout. But so far as hitting of general aggressiveness were concerned, they were as passive as in the other games. Wiltse did what Taylor, McGinnity and Ames had done before him, kept the Cubs from finding his delivery except in scattering fashion. The small crowd, which was huddled about in the warm spots, found only occasional moments in which to enthuse. Mertes made a lucky home run in the first inning, and as there were two men on bases at the time, enough runs came in in a lump to give the Champions a winning lead. Brown had doubled and McGann had been hit by
